GRADUATION RATES, PLACEMENT RATES, RETENTION RATES & MEDIAN LOAN DEBT

Placement and Retention Rates calculated using the Accrediting Council for Independent Colleges and Schools annual reporting guidelines. On-Time Graduation Rates reported indicate how many graduates of the total number of graduates graduated in the normal program length. These rates are affected by a student’s attendance, leave of absence, and externship completion (when applicable). Enter SOC Code at onetonline.org for occupational data.

LEGAL ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT

Diploma Program
67.5 Credits

Day Division Courses: 8:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m., Monday-Friday
Evening Division of Courses: 5:45 p.m. – 9:35 p.m., Monday-Thursday

This program prepares students for a profession as a Legal Administrative Assistant or Paralegal. Students can prepare for the Certified Paralegal exam through the National Association of Legal Assistants with training in general law, the American legal system, communications, ethics, judgment and analytical ability, and legal analysis and writing. Practical training for administrative skills is also provided in several Microsoft office courses and a legal office simulation series, with integrated projects in document management, practice management databases, electronic/automated courtroom, financial operations, and litigation support methods. Students can also perform factual and legal computer-assisted research.

MASSAGE THERAPY

Diploma Program
78.5 Credits

Day Division Courses: 8:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m., Monday-Friday
Evening Division of Courses: 5:45 p.m. – 9:35 p.m., Monday-Thursday

Upon completion of this program, the student will qualify to apply for the licensing exam through the Federation of State Massage Therapy Boards (MBLEX). A passing score on the exam allows the student to apply for licensure as a Massage Therapist in Rhode Island. The applicant must also meet additional requirements set forth by the Rhode Island Department of Health. Ridley-Lowell prepares students with a strong knowledge of anatomy & physiology, pathology, kinesiology, therapeutic massage, spa services, sports and medical massage, and the legal and ethical issues of massage necessary to be proficient as a massage therapist.

MTH101  Massage Therapy 1  2.25
After completing this course, the student will be able to understand and demonstrate proper body mechanics, ergonomics, biomechanics and self-care. Additionally, students will learn about the proper equipment, massage environment, how to set up your room for massage therapy as well as determine new client’s expectations, pre-massage and post-massage procedures as well as positioning and draping the client. You will have classroom and lab time during this module. This class has at least 8.0 hours of homework.
Prerequisite:  MTH 001 & MTH 002

MTH102  Massage Therapy 2  2.25
In this course, the massage procedure is the actual process of performing a massage therapy session. There are many variations of doing a massage and students will learn how to evaluate manipulations, apply mechanical force to soft tissue and incorporate joint movements. Students will learn about muscle energy methods and stretching. We will focus on the process of performing a massage session. Students will experience giving and receiving a full body massage during class time. This course includes, at a minimum, 7.5 hours of out-of-class work.
Prerequisite:  MTH 001, MTH 002, MTH 101
MTH103  Massage Therapy 3
In this course module, students will perform a full body massage using the methods, techniques and procedures presented in MT 102. Students will learn a full body routine, general massage suggestions, design a massage and learn and practice general seated massage. Students can expect to do massage outside of class, completing a log sheet to log of at least 10 hours of out of class practice. There is a minimum of 7.5 hours of homework in this class.
Prerequisite: MTH 001, MTH 002, MTH 101, MTH 102

MTH104  Massage Therapy 4
In this course, students will be able to define literacy, cite current research that validates underlying physiologic mechanisms of therapeutic massage, describe the fundamentals of interpreting a research paper, relate the concepts of physics to the experience of touch and massage therapy, and explain the effects of therapeutic massage in physiologic terms. Students will have the opportunity to write their own research paper.
Prerequisite: None

MTH105  MTH 105
Students in this course will learn how to conduct an effective client interview, explain and implement subjective and objective instruments into the assessment process, identify and address elements relating to dysfunction of posture and gait dysfunction. Additionally, students will learn how to integrate joint movement into the assessment process. Students can also expect to learn how to define and use simple orthopedic tests during the assessment process. Students will be giving and receiving massage during this module. There is approximately 7.5 hours of homework in this module.
Prerequisite: MTH 001, MTH 002, MTH 101, MTH 102, MTH 103

MTH106  Massage Therapy 6
In this course, students will learn how assessment by palpation, learn to utilize muscle testing for assessment, gather, interpret and assess information and use clinical reasoning skills to apply assessment data to treatment plan development. Students will be giving and receiving massage during this module. There is approximately 7.5 hours of homework in this module.
Prerequisite: MTH 001, MTH 002, MTH 101, MTH 102, MTH 103, MTH 105

MTH107  Massage Therapy 7
In this course, students will learn and demonstrate the following: describe the physiologic effects of bodywork systems, explain and implement hydrotherapy, describe the use of stones and tools used for thermotherapy, safely integrate aromatherapy into the massage process. Students will be giving and receiving massage during this class. This course includes a minimum of 7.5 hours of homework.
Prerequisite: MTH 001, MTH 002, MTH 101, MTH 102, MTH 103

MTH108  Massage Therapy 8
In this course, students will learn and demonstrate the following: modify the massage process to support lymph movement in the body, identify and use massage to treat trigger points, explain the fundamental concepts of Asian bodywork, compare shiatsu and thai massage, explore the philosophy of Ayurveda, explore and use the principals of polarity therapy as an energetic component of massage application and modify foot massage to incorporate the philosophy of reflexology. Students will be giving and receiving massage during this class. This course includes a minimum of 7.5 hours of homework.
Prerequisite: MTH 001, MTH 002, MTH 101, MTH 102, MTH 103
CATALOG UPDATES

MTH109  MASSAGE THERAPY 9  2.25
Students in this course can expect to learn about the history of the spa industry as well as current trends in the massage therapy field. Students will learn about compliance with HIPAA, health insurance and recordkeeping as well as confidentiality in the healthcare environment. Students will be able to identify opportunities for cross training in a variety of settings including fitness, sports, athletic and healthcare settings. There is a minimum of 7.5 hours of homework with this class.
Prerequisite: MTH 001, MTH 002

MTH110  MASSAGE THERAPY 10  2.25
Students in this course will learn how to adapt massage therapy for different situations such as animals, pregnancy, infants, children, adolescents as well as those with chronic illnesses. Students will learn how to adapt massage for those in a healthcare setting, undergoing oncology care and those with physical impairments. Additionally, students will learn how to do chair massage. Students will be giving and receiving massage during this class. There is a minimum, 7.5 hours of homework in this class.
Prerequisite: MTH 001, MTH 002, MTH 101, MTH 102, MTH103

MTH111  MASSAGE THERAPY 11  2.25
In this course, students will learn about the challenges individuals’ face that interfere with wellness, describe the importance of a wellness lifestyle. Explain physical exercise as part of a wellness program. Students will also help identify and define relaxation and restorative activities, explain how the mind and body connection affects wellness and implement and understand the importance of an individualized spiritual approach to wellness.
Prerequisite: None

MTH112  MASSAGE REVIEW  2.25
This course is designed as a seminar to prepare students to take their National Certification Exam for Therapeutic Massage and Bodywork along with training in CPR and First Aid. We will be studying and reviewing the content areas necessary to take the MBLEX. This course includes, at a minimum, 7.5 hours of out-of-class work.
Prerequisite: MTH001-111

I. DRUG AND ALCOHOL PREVENTION PROGRAM

Notice to Students and Employees

The Drug Free Schools and Communities Act Amendments of 1989, Public Law 101-226, requires that each institution of higher education shall annually distribute to each student and employee information that clearly sets forth school policy regarding the prohibition of illicit drugs and alcohol. Ridley-Lowell subscribes to the goals of the Drug Free Schools and Communities Act and takes this opportunity to alert students and employees to our Drug and Alcohol Free Awareness Program. The program consists of the following 4 phases:

PHASE 1

WARNING OF THE DANGERS OF DRUG AND ALCOHOL ABUSE

Drug and alcohol use impairs memory, alertness and achievement. It erodes the capacity to perform, think, and act responsibly. It may be grounds for termination of your enrollment with the institution or other legal action.

The following is a partial list of drugs, and the consequences of their use. The effect is clear. The use of alcohol and other drugs is detrimental to the health of the user. Further, the use of drugs and alcohol is not conducive to an academic atmosphere. Drugs impede the learning process and can cause disruption for other students and disturb their academic interests. The use of drugs in the workplace may also impede the employee’s ability to perform in a safe and effective manner, and may result in injuries to others. Early diagnosis and treatment of drug and alcohol abuse is in the best interests of the student, employee, and the school.

Marijuana and hashish are deleterious to the health and impair the short-term memory and comprehension of the user. Their use alters the sense of time, and reduces the ability of the user to perform tasks requiring concentration and coordination. It increases the heart rate and appetite. Motivation and cognition can be altered, making acquisition and retention of new information difficult. Long-term use may result in psychological dependence and can produce paranoia and psychosis. Because these drugs are inhaled as unfiltered smoke, they are damaging to the lungs and pulmonary system and they have more cancer-causing agents than tobacco.

Cocaine or crack stimulates the central nervous system and is extremely addictive. It can cause psychological and physical dependency on the drug, which can lead to dilated pupils, increased pulse rate, elevated blood pressure, insomnia, loss of appetite, paranoia, and seizures. It can also cause death by disrupting the brain’s control of the heart and respiration.

The use of other stimulants and amphetamines can have the same effect as cocaine use, causing increased heart rate and blood pressure which can result in stroke or heart failure. Symptoms include dizziness, sleeplessness, and anxiety. It can also lead to psychosis, hallucinations, paranoia, and even physical collapse.

Depressants and barbiturates can cause physical and psychological dependence that can lead to respiratory depression, coma, and death, especially when used in concert with alcohol. Withdrawal can lead to restlessness, insomnia, convulsions, and even death.

LSD, PCP, mescaline, and peyote are classified as hallucinogens. Hallucinogens interrupt the brain messages that control the intellect and keep instincts in check. Large doses can produce convulsions and coma, heart and lung failure. Chronic users experience persistent memory problems and speech difficulties for up to a year after their use. Because the drugs stop the brain’s pain sensors, drug experiences may result in severe self-inflicted injuries.

Users of narcotics, such as heroin, codeine, morphine, and opium develop dependence and increase the likelihood of an overdose which can lead to convulsions, coma, and death.

Alcohol is chemically classified as a mind-altering drug because it contains ethanol and has the chemical power to depress the action of the central nervous system. This depression affects motor coordination, speech, and vision. In large amounts, it can affect respiration and heart-rate control. Death can result when the level of blood alcohol exceeds 0.40%. Prolonged abuse of alcohol can lead to alcoholism, malnutrition, and cirrhosis.

Alcohol consumption causes a number of marked changes in behavior. Even low doses can significantly impair the judgment and coordination required to drive a car safely, increasing the likelihood that the driver will be involved in an accident. Low to moderate doses of alcohol also increases the incidence of a variety of aggressive acts, including spouse and child abuse. Moderate to high doses of alcohol cause marked impairments in higher mental functions, severely altering a person’s ability to learn and remember information. Very high doses cause respiratory depression and death. If combined with other depressants of the central nervous system, much lower doses of alcohol will produce the effects just described.

Repeated use of alcohol can lead to dependence. Sudden cessation of alcohol intake is likely to produce withdrawal symptoms, including severe anxiety, tremors, hallucinations, and convulsions. Alcohol withdrawal can be life threatening. Long-term consumption of large quantities of alcohol, particularly when combined with poor nutrition, can also lead to permanent damage to vital organs such as the brain and the liver.

Mothers who drink alcohol during pregnancy may give birth to infants with fetal alcohol syndrome. These infants have irreversible physical abnormalities and mental retardation. In addition, research indicates that children of alcoholic parents are at greater risk than other youngsters of becoming alcoholics.

PHASE 2

POLICY OF MAINTAINING A DRUG AND ALCOHOL FREE LEARNING ENVIRONMENT

All students and employees are hereby notified that the unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensing, possession or use of illicit drugs and alcohol is prohibited in the institution’s learning environment. Any student or employee must notify the institution of any criminal drug and alcohol statute conviction for a violation occurring in the learning environment no later than 5 days after such conviction. In compliance with the Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1988, the institution’s “workplace” consists of the following locations:

Ridley-Lowell Business and Technical Institute, 186 Providence Street, West Warwick, RI 02893, or, any teaching site, or any “off-site” location (i.e. field trips, luncheons, meetings, etc.) where the activities are in any way related to the institution.

NON-COMPLIANCE WITH THE TERMS OF THIS INSTITUTION'S DRUG-FREE WORKPLACE STATEMENT

Ridley-Lowell prohibits the unlawful possession, use, distribution, manufacture, or dispensing of illicit drugs and alcohol by students and employees on school property or as part of school activities. Violation of these provisions by a student may lead to the imposition of a disciplinary sanction, up to and including suspension or expulsion. Employees are also subject to disciplinary sanctions for violation of these provisions occurring on school property or the work site or during work time, up to and including termination from employment. Disciplinary sanctions are initiated and imposed in accordance with applicable procedural requirements and work rules, faculty and academic staff policies. Referral for prosecution under criminal law is also possible.

FEDERAL PENALTIES AND SANCTIONS FOR ILLEGAL POSSESSION OF A CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE

21 U.S.C. 844(a)

1st conviction: Up to 1 year imprisonment and fined at least $1,000 but not more than $100,000, or both.

After 1 prior drug conviction: At least 15 days in prison, not to exceed 2 years and fined at least $2,500 but not more than $250,000, or both.

After 2 or more prior drug convictions: At least 90 days in prison, not to exceed 3 years and fined at least $5,000 but not more than $250,000, or both.

Special sentencing provisions for possession of crack cocaine: Mandatory at least 5 years in prison, not to exceed 20 years and fined up to $250,000, or both, if:

(a) 1st conviction and the amount of crack possessed exceed 5 grams.
(b) 2nd crack conviction and the amount of crack possessed exceeds 3 grams.
(c) 3rd or subsequent crack conviction and the amount of crack possessed exceeds 1 gram.

Forfeiture of personal and real property used to possess or facilitate possession of a controlled substance if that offense is punishable by more than 1 year imprisonment. (See special sentencing provision re: crack)

21 U.S.C. 861 (A)(4)
Forfeiture of vehicles, boats, aircraft or any other conveyance used to transport or conceal a controlled substance.

*21 U.S.C. 844a
Denial of Federal benefits, such as student loans, grants, contracts, and professional and commercial licenses, up to 1 year for the first offense, up to 5 years for second and subsequent offenses.

*18 U.S.C. 922(g)
Ineligible to receive or purchase a firearm.

*Miscellaneous
Revocation of certain Federal licenses and benefits, e.g. pilot's licenses, public housing tenancy, etc., are vested within the authorities of individual Federal agencies.

Legal Sanctions

Illegal manufacture, possession, delivery, and use of a controlled substance and alcohol is a violation of federal, state, and/or local laws. Penalties range according to type of substance, amount in possession and/or delivered, and the number and type of previous violations. Listed below are examples of some penalties/sanctions:

CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES

- Manufacture, deliver, or possession with intent to manufacture or deliver a controlled substance: Imprisonment up to term for life and/or a $10,000 to $500,000 fine for violators respecting Schedule I and II controlled substances; imprisonment up to term 20 years and/or a fine up to $40,000 for violators respecting Schedule III and IV controlled substances (RIGL §21-28-4.01).
- Possession of controlled substance in absence of valid prescription: Imprisonment for not more than 3 years and/or a $500 to $5,000 fine for violators respecting Schedule I, II, III, IV, and V controlled substances (RIGL §3-8-10).

ALCOHOL

- Possession by a minor: For a first offense a fine of $100 - $500; for a second offense a fine of $200 - $500; for a third and subsequent offenses a fine of $300 - $500 (RIGL §3-8-10).
- Purchasing alcohol for, or furnishing alcohol to, a minor: A violator shall be guilty of a felony and subject to imprisonment not exceeding 6 months and/or a fine not exceeding $1,000 (RIGL §3-8-11.1,11.2).
- Misrepresentation of age: First offense, mandatory $100 to $500 fine; second offense, mandatory $250 to $500 fine; third and subsequent offenses, mandatory $500 to $1000 fines (RIGL §3-8-6). An additional penalty that may be imposed is the suspension of the violator's driver's license or privilege to drive.

II. CAMPUS SECURITY STATISTICS

This information is required under Public laws 102-26. The following date will provide you with campus security policies and statistics concerning the occurrence of criminal offenses on campus, non-campus building/property, public property, and dorms/residential facilities on campus.

Should you witness a crime in process or area victim of a crime, Ridley-Lowell requests that you follow this procedure:

During school hours, notify the Director, Tara-Lyn Houle, or the Admissions Director, Patricia Simonin, or the Information Technology Instructor, Chris Rao, and the West Warwick Police Department immediately.

Remember: Preserving evidence for proof of a criminal offense is very important.

Ridley-Lowell does not recognize any off campus student organizations that would be covered under this act.

The purpose and authority of campus security personnel is limited to securing the premises and protecting the facility. The enforcement authority of campus security personnel is limited to the enforcement of campus rules and regulations. Incidents that go beyond the scope of campus security personnel are referred to and investigated by the local law enforcement agency. To ensure the accurate and prompt reporting of all crimes, authorized administrative personnel will take a full written statement from involved parties and witnesses at all reported emergency or criminal incidents. The written statements are included as part of a written report, and such statements may be used by campus security personnel (if applicable) and local/state law enforcement authorities for the purpose of criminal apprehension and/or crime prevention. Criminal incidents may also be reviewed by the institution’s administrative staff for the purpose of disciplinary action.

All students are informed about campus security procedures and practices at orientation.

Everyone should remember that personal safety begins with you. The following should be considered:

- When walking on campus, be aware of who and what is around you. Try not to walk alone and avoid streets and secluded pathways or alleyways.
- Do not carry large amounts of cash.
- Keep your motor vehicle in good running condition. Always lock your car and remove all packages and any valuables. Try to park in a well-lit area.
- Do not leave books or personal property unattended in the classroom, student lounge, or hallway.

Sexual Assault Statement and Procedures:

Ridley-Lowell does not discriminate on the basis of sex in its educational programs and activities. Sexual harassment is unwelcome behavior of a sexual nature that is severe or pervasive and creates a hostile or abusive environment such that it unreasonably interferes with a person’s ability to learn or work. This type of behavior is prohibited whether it occurs between or among peers, and may be directed to persons of the opposite or same sex as that of the harasser.

Sexual violence and sexual harassment are types of sex discrimination. Sexual misconduct in all forms, including sexual assault, violate the sanctity of the human body, mind and spirit and will not be tolerated within the campus of Ridley-Lowell. The spectrum of sexual violence includes but is not limited to the following: rape, acquaintance rape; alcohol-and drug-facilitated sexual assault; types of sexual harassment; dating violence; stalking; sexual battery; unwanted touching in a sexual nature; sexual exploitation; and indecent exposure.

A student who is a victim of sexual assault should notify local law enforcement authorities: The West Warwick Police Department (401)821-4323 and Day One 24-Hour Victims of Crime Helpline (800)494-8100.

Stalking

Stalking is a pattern of conduct composed of a series of acts over a period of time, evidencing a continuity of purpose, meaning there is an intent to seriously alarm, annoy, or bother the persons, and such conduct serves no legitimate purpose. The course of conduct causes a reasonable person to suffer substantial emotional distress, or to be in fear of bodily injury. Cyber stalking or cyber harassment involves the use of a computer or other electronic devices to engage in this behavior. As is the case with other forms of sexual victimization, the vast majority of stalking victims know their stalkers. Stalking is both a violation of Ridley-Lowell and Rhode Island Law.

A student who is a victim of sexual assault should notify local law enforcement authorities: The West Warwick Police Department (401)821-4323 and Day One 24-Hour Victims of Crime Helpline (800)494-8100.

If applicable and reasonably available, the institution will change the academic and living situation of a student after an alleged sex offense.

If any disciplinary proceedings are held in cases of an alleged sex offense, both the accuser and the accused have the opportunity to have others present. Both the accuser and accused will be informed of the institution’s final determination of any institution disciplinary proceedings and any sanction imposed against the accused.
ADDENDUM E

STUDENT CONSUMER INFORMATION

The institution is in compliance with the Drug Free Schools and Communities Act of 1989 (Public Law 101-226). All students and employees should refer to the section "Drug and Alcohol Prevention Program" for information concerning the campus policies and individual responsibilities required under this Act.

The crime data reported by the institution has not been subjected to independent verification by ED. Therefore, the Department cannot vouch for the accuracy of the data reported here.

STUDENT CONSUMER INFORMATION

III. INFORMATION SECURITY PROGRAM

OVERVIEW:
Ridley-Lowell Business & Technical Institute strives to provide administrative, technical, and physical safeguards to assure the security and integrity of student/employee data against the anticipated threats and hazards of external access and unauthorized internal access. This Program has been instituted to ensure the security and confidentiality of non-public student/employee information, including student/employee health and financial information.

SECURITY PROGRAM COORDINATOR:
In conjunction with the School President, Campus Director and Networking & Technical Support Department, the Security Program Coordinator is responsible for achieving the goal of adequate safeguards and ensuring accountability. Please contact the Security Coordinator immediately if you suspect a security breach has occurred:

Tara-Lyn Houle
186 Providence Street
West Warwick, RI 02893
Tel: (401)262-3117
Email: ridirector@ridley.edu

INTERNAL/EXTERNAL RISKS:
The building is open from 7:30 a.m. to 10:35 p.m. Monday through Thursday, 7:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Friday, and remains locked and secured by an ADT alarm system during closed hours and weekends. Each administrator has the pass code for the alarm system and a front door key, along with the department Directors of the teaching staff. As necessary document gathering for enrollment in our programs, hiring of employees, and for the purposes of determining financial aid eligibility, our administrative staff collects and maintains student/employee records containing personal demographic, financial, and health information records.

SAFEGUARDS:
All administrators are trained at the time of hire regarding the confidentiality of student/employee data. The administrative staff is responsible for maintaining and storing all student/employee records in locked storage areas at all times when unattended.

The database used for storing student records has been set up with restricted access so that each administrator has an individual password and each administrator has only been granted access to the modules of the database that are relevant to their respective departments. Each department performs a daily backup of important information to the main server, which includes a backup of the student database. The main server is backed up periodically and stored in a secure off-site location/

The network server remains in a locked room when unattended and is maintained by our Networking & Technical Support Department. This department also maintains all systems which use current anti-virus, anti-spyware, and firewall software which scan and update each system daily. All systems use MS Windows XP, MS Windows 7, or MS Windows Server with all currently available service packs and hotfixes. The MS Automatic Update feature assures this is kept current, which also includes the practices for detecting, preventing, and remedying system failures/attacks/intrusions on the system.

The CISCO router provides NAT, Network Address Translation feature, and all ports are disabled. Administration of the router is protected by password and can only be accessed from the System Administrators workstation. Server group policies are in place, limiting access to files, folders, and systems on the Domain. This isolates these systems from the rest of the school providing additional privacy. All unnecessary services and software are disabled.

All areas of concern are audited with administrative alerts being sent to the Security Coordinator and the System Administrator. All log-on and permission change requests attempts are also logged and audited.

PERIODIC EVALUATION:
The Coordinator does perform an annual review to evaluate and modify the Program in response to any material changes. Each Department within the Institution is expected to participate in identifying security risks and in evaluating the effectiveness of current systems and procedures in place to ensure that the safeguards are effective across all operational levels of the Institution.

RESPONSE TO SECURITY BREACH:
The School will conduct a prompt and thorough investigation in tandem with local law enforcement and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. If more than 5,000 persons are affected, the Secret Service will be notified. The Networking and Technical Support Department will immediately secure the affected databases, temporarily shut down network access, reset all passwords, and notify all affected users. In the case of a physical breach, all storage facilities will be secured and locks changed immediately. A notice of any breach will be issued by the Coordinator to all administration, faculty/staff, students, and any actually/possibly exposed persons. A security breach notice will contain at least the following information:

1. Description of breach and data effected
2. Remedial actions by affected person – contact information for credit bureaus
3. FTC identity theft website www.consumer.gov/idtheft
4. Contact information for law enforcement officer working on case
5. Encouragement to any student/consumer who learns of misuse of his/her personal data to file a complaint with FTC 1-877-ID-THEFT

A breach that involves employees or others acquiring student identity data and Title IV data for a scheme to falsely obtain Title IV aid will be reported to the Office of Inspector General. If names and social security numbers are accessed the following major credit bureaus will be notified:

Equifax Information Services, LLC
678-795-7090

IV. TREATMENT OF TITLE IV AID WHEN A STUDENT WITHDRAWS

The law specifies how your school must determine the amount of Title IV program assistance that you earn if you withdraw from school. The Title IV programs that are covered by this law are: Federal Pell Grants, Academic Competitiveness Grants, National SMART grants, TEACH Grants, Stafford Loans, PLUS Loans, Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants (FSEOGs), and Federal Perkins Loans.

When you withdraw during your payment period or period of enrollment (your school can define these for you and tell you which one applies) the amount of Title IV program assistance that you have earned up to that point is determined by a specific formula. If you received (or your school or parent received on your behalf) less assistance than the amount that you earned, you may be able to receive those additional funds. If you received more assistance than you earned, the excess funds must be returned by the school and/or you.

The amount of assistance that you have earned is determined on a prorated basis. For example, if you completed 30% of your payment period or period of enrollment, you earn 30% of the assistance you were originally scheduled to receive. Once you have completed more than 60% of the payment period or period of enrollment, you earn all the assistance that you were scheduled to receive for that period.

If you did not receive all of the funds that you earned, you may be due a post-withdrawal disbursement. If your post-withdrawal disbursement includes loan funds, your school must get your permission before it can disburse them. You may choose to decline some or all of the loan funds so that you don’t incur additional debt. Your school may automatically use all or a portion of your post-withdrawal disbursement of grant funds for tuition, fees, and room and board charges (as contracted with the school). The school needs your permission to use the post-withdrawal grant disbursement for all other school charges. If you do not give your permission (some schools ask for this when you enroll), you will be offered the funds. However, it may be in your best interest to allow the school to keep the funds to reduce your debt at the school.

There are some Title IV funds that you were scheduled to receive that cannot be disbursed to you once you withdraw because of other eligibility requirements. For example, if you are a first-time, first-year undergraduate student and you have not completed the first 30 days of your program before you withdraw, you will not receive any FFEL or Direct loan funds that you would have received had you remained enrolled past the 30th day.

If you receive (or your school or parent receives on your behalf) excess Title IV program funds that must be returned, your school must return a portion of the excess equal to the lesser of:

1. Your institutional charges multiplied by the unearned percentage of your funds, or
2. The entire amount of excess funds.

The school must return this amount even if it didn’t keep this amount of your Title IV program funds. If your school is not required to return all of the excess funds, you must return the remaining amount. Any loan funds that you must return, you (or your parent for a PLUS Loan) repay in accordance with the terms of the promissory note. That is, you make scheduled payments to the holder of the loan over a period of time. Any amount of unearned grant funds that you must return is called an overpayment. The maximum amount of a grant overpayment that you must repay is half of the grant funds you received or were scheduled to receive.

You do not have to repay a grant overpayment if the original amount of the overpayment is $50 or less. You must make arrangements with your school or the Department of Education to return the unearned grant funds. The requirements for Title IV program funds when you withdraw are separate from any refund policy that your school may have. Therefore, you may still owe funds to the school to cover unpaid institutional charges. Your school may also charge you for any Title IV program funds that the school was required to return. If you don’t already know what your school’s refund policy is, you can ask your school for a copy. Your school can also provide you with the requirements and procedures for officially withdrawing from school.

If you have questions about your Title IV program funds, you can call the Federal Student Aid Information Center at 1-800-4-FEDAI (1-800-433-3243). TTY users may call 1-800-730-8913. Information is also available on Student Aid on the Web at www.studentaid.ed.gov.

STUDENT CONSUMER INFORMATION

V. SUMMARY OF YOUR RIGHTS UNDER THE FAIR CREDIT REPORTING ACT

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental history records). Here is a summary of your major rights under the FCRA. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.ftc.gov/credit or write to: Consumer Response Center, Room 130-A, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Ave. N.W., Washington, D.C. 20580.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment – or to take another adverse action against you – must tell you, and must give you the name, address, and phone number of the agency that provided the information.

- You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a consumer reporting agency (your “file disclosure”). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if:
  - a person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report;
  - you are the victim of identity theft and place a fraud alert in your file;
  - your file contains inaccurate information as a result of fraud;
  - you are on public assistance;
  - you are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days.

In addition, by September 2005 all consumers will be entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty consumer reporting agencies. See www.ftc.gov/credit for additional information.

- You have the right to ask for a credit score. Credit scores are numerical summaries of your credit-worthiness based on information from credit bureaus. You may request a credit score from consumer reporting agencies that create scores or distribute scores used in residential real property loans, but you will have to pay for it. In some mortgage transactions, you will receive credit score information for free from the mortgage lender.

- You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate, and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.ftc.gov/credit for an explanation of dispute procedures.

- You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate, and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.ftc.gov/credit for an explanation of dispute procedures.

- Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information. Inaccurate, incomplete or unverifiable information must be removed or corrected, usually within 30 days. However, a consumer reporting agency may continue to report information it has verified as accurate.

- Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information. In most cases, a consumer reporting agency may not report negative information that is more than seven years old, or bankruptcies that are more than 10 years old.

- Access to your file is limited. A consumer reporting agency may provide information about you only to people with a valid need -- usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. The FCRA specifies those with a valid need for access.

- You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. A consumer reporting agency may not give out information about you to your employer, or a potential employer, without your written consent.
given to the employer. Written consent generally is not required in the trucking industry. For more information, go to www.ftc.gov/credit.

- You may limit “prescreened” offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report. Unsolicited “prescreened” offers for credit and insurance must include a toll-free phone number you can call if you choose to remove your name and address from the lists these offers are based on. You may opt-out with the nationwide credit bureaus at 1-888-5-OPTOUT (1-888-567-8688).
- You may seek damages from violators. If a consumer reporting agency, or, in some cases, a user of consumer reports or a furnisher of information to a consumer reporting agency violates the FCRA, you may be able to sue in state or federal court.
- Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights. For more information, visit www.ftc.gov/credit.

States may enforce the FCRA, and many states have their own consumer reporting laws. In some cases, you may have more rights under state law. For more information, contact your state or local consumer protection agency or your state Attorney General. Federal enforcers are:
